LOCAL GATHERINGS.
—Joseph Gauthier has purchased of John Lancot his building lot on Marion avenue.

—James Foye will superintend the construction of George C. Cary's new house on Main street.

—Considerable concrete work is being put in on Railroad street to replace the old brick walk.

—Harry H. Carr and Road Commissioner Jackson are measuring the roads in town this week.

—The Dupont Power Hammer Co. have just sold two of their large hammers to the U. S. government.

—Next regular meeting of Clover Temple, No. 1, will be held at Pythian Hall, Monday evening, June 17.

—E. A. Silsby gave a very interesting smoke talk on his recent trip abroad before the Mystic Club Thursday evening. He dwelt particularly on his trip up the Nile.

—A number of large ripe strawberries were brought into the CALEDONIAN office Thursday, raised in William Peck's garden, on Maple street. These are the first raised this season in town.

—Miss Margaret E. Gorham, Miss Marjorie Batchelder, organists, and Miss Anna M. Somerville, soprano, will give a public organ recital at the North church, Monday evening, June 17, at 8.15 o'clock.

—The ball game between the Fairbanks scale office force and the bank men Saturday afternoon, resulted in a victory for the former by a score of 20 to 3. There was a good attendance and Brightlook Hospital received $35 from the proceeds of the game.

—St. John the Baptist's day will be elaborately celebrated on the 24th of June by the parishioners of Notre Dame des Victories church. A committee of organization has been appointed composed of J. O. Drouin, David Frechette and Jovite Pinard.

—Harry E. Stiles, band master of the 26th Regiment, U. S. V., who has just returned from the Philippines, has been visiting his brother, E. L. Stiles. He gave a very interesting talk at the Mystic Club last evening. Lemonade and light lunch were served.

—The ladies of the Universalist church will hold their regular meeting in the church vestry Thursday, June 13, at 3 o'clock. At six o'clock the ladies will serve a supper to all members of the parish. Each lady is requested to bring her contribution to the supper.

—The Citizens Telephone Co. has put in ten new instruments the past week. This makes about 100 instruments added to the lines since the subscribers' list was printed, and a new card will be issued soon. Poles have been set on the line south as far as East Barnet.

—The Academy base ball team met with two defeats last week. At Whitefield Friday they were defeated 11 to 2, and at Littleton Saturday, 16 to 7. Neither game was finished because of rain. Quite a party of students drove to Littleton Saturday to witness the game.

—Quite extensive repairs have just been completed on the parsonage and grounds belonging to the First Baptist church, on Railroad street. During the present pastorate $700 have been expended on this house and grounds, nearly all of which has been paid, and the society is to be congratulated on its prosperity.

—The street department is putting the finishing touches on the macadamizing of Portland street east of the bridge and have begun work at the Moose river bridge and will complete the work to where it was begun last year, thus Portland street between the bridges will be entirely macadamized. Residents of Summerville are elated over the improvement.

—The rendering of Gounod's "Out of Darkness" at the South church Sunday evening was very successful. The regular quartet and chorus of the church was assisted by Harry H. May, F. Sidney Smith, organist at St. Andrew's, played as a prelude, Allegro Grazioso from "Pathetic Symphony" by Tschakowski, and as a postlude Hoyt's Fantasia in C minor.

—The New England Telephone and Telegraph Company have placed a long distance telephone at the residence of M. A. Greene, manager of the Standard Oil Company's business, 47 Concord avenue. The New England company are, in the very near future, to run a new copper circuit from St. Johnsbury and substantially reconstruct the entire line. This will give the public two through circuits between St. Johnsbury and Newport.

—George W. Young, Councilor of Gen. Logan Council, No. 22, Jr. O. U. A. M., commenced Monday evening a tour of the councils in this district, in the interest of a contest between the degree teams of the various lodges, which is to be held later in the summer. The councils in this district are: Gen. Sheridan, No. 26, East Burke; Unity, No. 27, West Burke; Caledonia Springs, No. 28, Wheelock; Rising Sun, No. 34, North Danville; Gen. Sherman, No. 31, Lyndon; Meridian Sun, No. 29, Lunenburg; George Leslie, No. 25, Wells River.

—A home talent entertainment will be given the latter part of this month for the benefit of Brightlook Hospital. It will be under the direction of Chamberlin Post and Relief Corps and the proceeds will be the contribution of these organizations to the hospital. Another motive which prompted the enterprise is the desire of the promoters to give to the public the best home talent entertainment ever given in St. Johnsbury. It will be largely musical and the program is sure to be an exceptionally pleasing one. Mrs. Emma Shufelt Moore will be present to sing with the Marcians.

Election of Officers.
At the adjourned annual meeting of Brightlook Hospital, held at the office of Dunnett & Slack Monday evening, the following officers were elected:
President—Alexander Dunnett.
Vice-President—Frank H. Brooks.
Secretary—Dr. E. H. Ross.
Treasurer—P. F. Hazen.
Directors for three years—Henry Fairbanks, Alexander Dunnett and F. G. Bundy.

A Valuable Dog Shot.
Last Wednesday evening, Ivoc, Hon. A. F. Nichols' valuable St. Bernard dog was shot through the body by some unknown person. It is thought that the shooting was done in the vicinity of sand hill, at the north end of Main street. He succeeded in getting home and lived until the next night. Every effort has been made to find who was the perpetrator of the cowardly deed, but no definite clue has been found as yet. The investigation will be continued, however. Ivoc was a magnificent specimen of the famous St. Bernard breed. He was pure bred and came from a noted kennel. He was seven years old and weighed 165 pounds.

A Unique Work of Art.
The Bibliophile Society has its first publication now in progress in "The Odes and Epodes of Horace," which is to be issued complete with life and bibliography in six volumes. Among the illustrators are Howard Pyle, Edmund H. Garrett, W. W. Bicknell, W. F. Hopson, James Fagan, J. W. Kennedy and others. The work will contain about 150 fancy illustrative initials drawn especially for this work, mostly by Miss Helen S. Patterson, and to be printed in colors. Her St. Johnsbury friends congratulate her on this new honor.

School Notes.
The children of the fifth grade in the Summer street schools presented their teacher, Miss Hicks, a beautiful picture of Hoffman's Christ in the celebrated painting "Christ before the Doctors." The gift came entirely as a surprise and was presented to her last Thursday morning by Supt. Dempsey. The picture will make a fine addition to the fifth grade room.

The ninth grade at the Summer street schools was entertained last Friday afternoon by the eighth grade in a very pleasant way. Recitations, musical selections, a child's story finely read by Miss Woodruff and a talk on birds were the features of the entertainment.

Two More Unfortunates.
In Judge Worcester's court Wednesday Patrick Egan, who gave his residence as Monroe, was sentenced to ten days in jail for intoxication and his brother John of the same place was given 108 days in the workhouse for furnishing. The brothers came to town Tuesday and Patrick procured liquor at the agency under false pretences. After he became intoxicated John treated some friends with the balance. This constituted his crime. At the expiration of Patrick's sentence he will, doubtless, follow his brother to the workhouse for lying to the agent.

JUNE WEDDINGS.
Stiles-Derrick.
Dr. T. R. Stiles was married last Wednesday evening to Miss Elizabeth A. Derrick, a former resident of St. Johnsbury. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. G. Lett at the residence of B. C. Howard of Sherbrooke, where the bride has made her home. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion and the couple were married beneath the English and American flag. It was a quiet home wedding and only a few friends of the family were present. Dr. Stiles' two sons, Don C. and Dr. Ned C. Stiles were the only invited guests from St. Johnsbury. Dr. and Mrs. Stiles returned to their St. Johnsbury home Saturday night and were pleasantly surprised by finding there about 25 neighbors and friends to greet them. The bride received many choice presents and the couple have the best wishes of a wide circle of friends.

Wescott-Moulton.
A wedding which took place in Portland, Me., last Wednesday evening is of especial interest to our readers as both parties have been residents here. Miss May C. Moulton of this place was united in marriage to Josiah P. Wescott, Jr., at the residence of the groom's father, 9 Wescott street. The bride was charmingly gowned in white silk muslin, trimmed with lace, tulle veil, and carried bride's roses. Miss Lucia Carney was maid of honor and wore a gown of pearl and white silk, trimmed with lace and pink panne velvet, and carried pink roses. W. A. Moulton, the bride's brother, was best man. The house was tastefully decorated with palms and cut flowers, and music was furnished by the Portland band orchestra, W. E. Chandler, leader. Ices, punch, fancy crackers and cake were served during the evening. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Wescott, Jr., will reside at 9 Wescott street. They are both well and very pleasantly known in this town and a large circle of friends extend their best wishes.

Bacon-Hazelton.
"Hazelhurst Farm," residence of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hazelton at St. Johnsbury Centre, was the scene of a pretty home wedding Monday evening, when their daughter, Constance Gertrude, was united in marriage to Percy Delos Bacon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. Donaldson at 8 o'clock before a few immediate friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The bride party stood under an arch of evergreen, and the parlor and other rooms were prettily decorated with evergreen, potted plants and cut flowers. The bride wore a white lawn trimmed with white silk chiffon and satin ribbon, and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The best man was Frank Edwards and the bridesmaid, Mrs. Frank Edwards was gowned in old rose and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Bacon left on the night train for a short wedding trip and will be "at home" after June 17 at "The Elms," St. Johnsbury Centre, the home of the groom's parents, where they will reside. Ice cream and cake and punch were served to the guests by Miss Jessica Brook and Charlie Brook. The wedding gifts were numerous and costly. Congratulations were extended from a host of friends.

Clardy-Bisson.
A pretty ceremony took place at the Notre Dame des Victoires church Monday morning, the event being the wedding of Miss Rosanna Bisson of this place to William Clardy of Lyndonville. The bride, who wore a white dress of mousseline de soie, was escorted to the main altar by her father, Joseph Bisson. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Boissonnault, assisted by Rev. Father Pontbriand of Lyndonville, and Rev. Father Marceau of the Notre Dame congregation. Mr. and Mrs. Clardy were the recipients of many beautiful gifts. They left for a wedding trip through Canada in the afternoon, accompanied by the good wishes of relatives and friends.

Weber-Weyman.
J. Albert Weber, formerly of this place, but now in New York, and Miss Isabelle Adelaide Weyman, were quietly married Saturday, June 1, at eight o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Dr. G. R. Vandewater, in St. Andrew's Episcopal church, in the presence of the parents and immediate relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Weber are "at home" to friends at No. 35 West 117th street. His many friends here and elsewhere extend congratulations.

A St. J. A. Boy for the Philippines.
The Bradford Opinion has this to say concerning a recent graduate of St. Johnsbury Academy:
"Prof. Gay W. Felton, for the past year principal of the Academy here, has received an appointment from Lieut.-Col. C. R. Edwards, war department, division of insular affairs, Washington, D. C., for a position in the department of public instruction in the Philippine Islands, at a salary of $1200 a year and all traveling expenses to and from the islands. He will leave for the Philippines about July 15. Mr. Felton was highly recommended by Horace W. Bailey, superintendent of the Newbury schools, and by V. A. Doty, last year chairman of the school board of trustees here. We congratulate him on his appointment as do also his friends here and in Newbury. Mr. Felton has had several years experience as a teacher, is a hard, faithful worker and will certainly meet with success in this new field. The government engages him for three years, though, if he does not like, he is not obliged to stay. The appointment is a good one and has come to a good man who will make every effort to fill it to the best of his ability."

Tickets will be required, as usual, for the public speaking and graduating exercises. These may be obtained, without charge, at Bingham's drug store. Tickets for the public speaking will be ready for distribution Saturday, June 15, at 8 a. m., and those for the graduating exercises Wednesday, June 19, at 8 a. m.

The annual reception and reunion Friday, June 21, at 8 p. m., promises to be an occasion of great interest. The following has been prepared by the Alumni executive committee:

"FOR AULD LANG SYNE."
The annual reception and reunion of the Alumni of the Academy will be held in the Academy hall on the evening of Friday, June 21. It is earnestly hoped that all who can will avail themselves of this opportunity of meeting the "boys and girls" of their school-days, talking over old times and renewing old associations. All former students, whether graduates or not, and the husbands and wives of former students, are cordially invited to be present, and it is hoped that those who see this notice will extend the invitation to others, as it is obviously impossible to reach all Alumni whom we would be glad to welcome. If you are intending to be present send word at once to that effect to Miss Isabel M. Paddock, chairman of executive committee.

Mrs. P. F. Hazen entertained the senior class last evening in honor of Miss Mary Darling.

Miss Mabel E. Ross gave a delightful reception to the senior class at her pleasant home in Summerville Friday evening.

East St. Johnsbury.
Miss Abbie Smith expects to attend the graduating exercises at Mt. Holyoke next week, where her sister, Miss Annie M. Smith, is a member of the graduating class.

Charles Newton and his mother have returned from a week's visit with friends in New Hampshire.

Percy Onks has gone to Bethlehem, where he has a position as bell-boy in the "Uplands."

The ladies' society will meet with Mrs. R. K. Graves Thursday. The gentlemen are invited to dinner.

Russell Griswold did not have typhoid fever, as was feared last week, but has been suffering from a nervous trouble and is recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clark have been visiting friends in Orleans county.

An Evening of Music.
A large and interested audience were entertained at the recital given in Pythian Hall, Monday evening, by the pupils of the School of Music. The program consisted of piano solos, duets, and quartettes and violin solos. The pupils did great credit to their instructors, some of the younger ones doing especially good work. The school will be open for a summer term of six weeks, beginning July first.
